

THAT PEACE
GIRL

ABOUT RITIKA GUPTA

Who is Ritika Gupta?

Ritika Gupta is a budding writer and editor. She published her debut book on May 3, 2017, when she was just 19-years-old.

She has completed her Bachelor's Course in English from Delhi University in 2019.

Since when she's writing?

Ritika has remained a curious kid since she was a tiny tot. She has been scribbling and sketching from probably 3 or 5 years of age and has built a pile of eleven personal diaries, five observational notebooks, and thousands of poems, short stories, and quotes.

She began writing in her school-days (precisely, from the sixth standard).

She became serious about being an author at the age of eighteen when she faced her first grand failure (failed in getting admission in DCA) and became hopeless about her career around fine arts.

Tell something more about her.

Often misinterpreted, misunderstood, and ignored, Ritika is a girl in her twenties and has won the hearts of almost every person who comes in her contact. Most of the youths like her due to her transparency, and also, her bold, subversive, and unique ideas that she expresses in her words, be it spoken or written.

Other than her passion for writing, she is also a novice designer, lover of photography, and an admirer of modeling and music. She is a supporter of the postmodern movement that is currently rising in the world of literature and arts.

A believer of her own built philosophy of life, that is, Death, she's a depression survivor, currently living with her family in one of developing sideline states of Delhi, India.

...her school and education?

She has done her schooling from Ganga International School and has received her bachelor's degree in English from SPM College for women/girls, DU. She has completed her training/internship from a writing and trekking company between 2016-19.

Furthermore, she has learned to sketch and design.

What is she upto
presently?

Currently, she is working on her website, completing her books, uploading a lot of posts, and freelancing as a content specialist for various organizations, websites, and people.

Along with this, she's pursuing peace, spreading happiness, and embracing love.